

European Grapeberry Moth (continued)

Eupoecilia ambiguella (Hübner)

Tortricidae: Tortricinae: Cochylini

Description of Adult

- Forewing length 6.0-7.5 mm.
- Forewing mostly yellow or yellowish orange with blackish brown, trapezoidal, median fascia, broadest at the costa and narrowest at the dorsum.
- Male genitalia with uncus reduced to a rounded nub; socii extremely short; transtilla with median rectangular process, spiny at apex; valva parallel-sided in basal half, triangular in distal half; sacculus narrow, confined to lower edge of valva; aedeagus very large, vesica with various patches of cornuti.
- Female genitalia with broad, short ductus bursae; corpus bursae with numerous patches sclerotization and spines.

